Hurley's Sarsaparilla. Of all the remedies that have been discovered during the present age for the "thousand ills that flesh is heir to," none equal this wonderful preparation. Only three years have elapsed since the discoverer (who spent a decae in studying, experimentalizing and perfecting it) first itroduced it to the public, and it is aiready recognized by the most emisent physicians in all parts of the country to be the most surprising and effective remedy for certain diseases of which they have knowledge.

All other compounds or syrups of the root have hitherto failed to command the sanction of the faculty, occause, on being tested, they have been found to contain noxious in gredients, which maturalize the good effects of the Sarsaparilla, an influentimes injure the health of the patient.

This is the pure and genuine extract of the root, and will on trial, be found to effect a certain and perfect cure of the following compiaints and diseases.

Affections of the Bones, Habitual Costiveness,

Habitual Costiveness, Indigestion,
Liver Complaints,
Piles,
Pulmonary Diseases,
Scrofula, or King's Evil,
Syphilis, bilty, seases of the Kidneys, lyspepsia, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, And all Skin Diseases. Besides curing the abov And an Skin Diseases.

Besides curing the above, it is also known to be a great nd powerful tonic, purifying the blood and invigorating he system.

In short, it is without exception, in the cases mentioned In short, it is without exception, in the cases mentioned and its general effect on the system, the most efficacious, as it is the most desirable, remedy of the age. It is already extensively used throughout the country, and is fast obtaining an European reputation. The instances of cures this effected are daily coming to the proprietors knowledge, and he has no hesitation in recommending it to one and all who desire to precure relief from suffering. One bottle being tried, its effects will be too apparent to admit of further doubt.

We have published extracts from the Congres-

During Mr. Fillmore's entire service in Con-He not only voted with the abolitionists upon one, two, or three occasions, but upon all occasions. For instance, near the close of his Con- Mr. Fremont stand on this test question. gressional career, in 1843, the following resolutions were moved by Slade:

WHEREAS, by a law of the United States framed declared to be piracy, and is made punishable by death; and whereas, there is, and has long been carried on in the District of Columbia, within sight of the Halls of the two Houses of Congress and the residence of the Chief Executive Magisin it as the enemies of the human race; and whereas, in enormity, by reason of its being carried on in the heart of a nation whose institutions are based upon, whose laws have in effect proclaimed its great and superlative iniquity; aggravated moreover, by its outrage on the sensi-bilities of a Christian community, by sundering the ties of Christian brotherhood, and by the anguish of its remorseless violation of all the domestic relations, rendered the more deep and enduring by the hallowing influence of the Christian religion upon those relations and by the increased strength which it gives to the domestic affections; and, whereas, this trade in human beings is carried on under the authority of laws enacted by the Congress of the United States, thereby involving the people of all the States in its guilt and disgrace—a guilt and disgrace enhanced by the consideration that those laws are a virtual usurpation of power, the Constitution of the United States having conferred upon Congress no right to establish the relation of slavery, or to sanction and protect the slave trade, in any portion of the confederacy. Therefore, Resolved, and Adams, voted for this resolution.

On the 3d Jan'y, 1843, Mr. Morgan presented thereof as imposes a capitation tax on such of dence and support. them as may enter said Territory and athorizes their sale for ninety years, for the non-payment of said tax.

Black moved to lay the resolution on the table

On the 23d of February, Briggs, of Massachusetts, asked leave to submit the following reso-

Whereas, all laws passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of Florida are in full force, until disapproved by Congreess, therefore Resolved. That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed forthwith to report the following

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assem-bled, That an act passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of the Territory of Florida, approved by the said Governor on 5th March, 1842, entitled "an act to prevent the future migration of free negroes or mulattoes to this Territory and for other purposes, be and the same is by disapproved, and shall henceforth be of no force.

Briggs asked a suspension of the rules; yeas 66, navs 104. Fillmore yes, in favor of Briggs. Fremont, the candidate of the straight-out nigger-worshippers, has no such damning record as this. For a few months he was United States Senator from California, and upon the two or three occasions he was called upon to vote his sentiments about slavery, he voted against the abolitionists, as will be seen from the following extracts:

From the Congressional Globe, vol. 21, part 2d, p. 1803, &c. IN SENATE OF U. S. SEPT. 11, 1850. Mr. Underwood, of Kentucky, called up the barque Pons were turned over to the Colonization Society by the authority of the United States, clothing, and educating these people, It was certainly an expense incurrred by the society, through the action of the government in throwing those young negroes upon them for maintenance, instead of taking them, as the gov-That is the nature of the claim. A similar report has again been made; and as the necessi-

Mr. Turney asked for the reading of the report sets forth that a liberal construction of the act of Congress, of March 3, 1819, would require that the government should provide for the support of those recaptured Africaus for a reasonable time after they had been landed in Liberia, and that it is beneath the dignity of the government to devolve this duty upon the society. The petition of the executive committee of the society, which the committee incorporated in their reservance. which the committee incorporated in their re-port, states that on the 16th of December, 1845, the United States ship Yorktown, Commodore Bell, landed at Monrovia, in Liberia, from the slaver Pons, seven hundred and fifty recaptured Africans in a naked, starving, and dying condition, all of them, excepting twenty-one, being under the age of twenty-one. This declaration is made in view of the platform of principles which our Convention adopted at Cincinnati, as well as of the important document issued by the three ministers at Ostende, in which the following passages occur:

"We firmly believe that the vital interests of the United States are seriously involved in its possessions of Cuba; the Union can never enjoy Blair County Pa., Whig, the Beaver, Pa., Argus repose nor possess reliable security without Self-preservation is the first law of nature with States as well as individuals; and we shall be justified in wresting it (Cuba) from Spain, if we possess the power."

There was but little lost, however, in not hearits editor, George D. Prentice, to wantonly at-tack an individual, aspiring to no political posiing Mr. Davis. His speech was but a rehash of the Louisville Journal. The speaker descended to all the vulgar slang that has been heaped upon Mr. Buchanan by Prentice. He licked his lips over the slang of "ten cent Jimmy," and pledged his personal honor to the truth of the slander. He charged Mr. Buchanan with being an abolitionist, and gloated over the charge that Mr. Buchanan was the author of the bargain and corruption story.

His speech was in truth the foul drippings of the pot-house, hissed out from his palsied lungs with all the venom of the adder. It was the feeted effervescence of demagoguery, worthy only o the Louisville Journal, and mortifying to those who had expected better things from Mr. Davis. What Donelson thought of Fillmore in 1851.

In the Washington Union of October 18th 1855, while A. J. Donelson was its editor, can be found the following article.

There has been an idea that Mr. Fillmore was strong before the people of the South. This idea made him, for a time the favorite candidate South never had any root in the public mind HE WAS A BITTER PILL—A VERY BITTER PILL-TO THE SOUTH IN 1848: and she took him only for the sake of General Taylor; and since then he was done literally nothing specially to commend himself to Southern favor. It is DER. Who believes that, with the proper spirit, capacity, and effort in the White House, we should have this disgraceful muster roll of triumphant, insulting, and yet unpunished negro and abolitionists mobs, insurrections, and murders? Who believes that, with the right kind of an executive, our government would now have to stand in its present attitude of humiliation towards Spain, and the European intervening powers, and at the same time in such miserable self contradiction in its course towards the revo-lutionary provinces of Mexico? The executive inefficiency in the execution of the fugitive law, and the wretched blunder in the Cuban business —from its commencement to its close, so far as it is yet closed—have doomed the administra-tion at the South Add to this that its tariff policy is utterly at war with Southerh interests, and the last official explanation of that policy in the columns of the Republic, pointing directly to a restoration of the "black tariff" of 1842, is enough to rouse throughout the whole South the most bitter and wide spread hostility. With these facts in view, it is plain that President Fillmore can have no real strength with the people of the South even if we leave out of view the great Gal-phin odium which his administration inherited, or the geat Garden odium in which it is implicated.

Died in Edmonson county, on the 24th day of April last, Captain Sylvanus Johnson, in the 76th year of his age Capt. Johnson was born in Virginia, married a nicee of Patrick Henry, and was engaged in merchandising for sometime in Petersburg, and Fincastle. Afterwards he moved to this State, where he lived in the confidence and affection of his friends and neighbors. He had no superiors, and but few equals. Few men have lived and died with as few enemies. He has left a beloved wife, and kind and affectionate children to mourn their irreparable loss. He was a kind husband and affectionate father, and beloved and respected by all that knew him. Capt. Johnson died as he had lived, a firm believer in the Christian religion, and died in the hope of a glorious resurrection phin odium which his administration inherited, or the geat Garden odium in which it is implicated. And it is in these circumstances that we find President Fillmore putting the last hand to his ruin at the South, by bringing out anew, and with justification, his old, and for a time dormant, abolitionism.

Our own explanation, therefore, of the Webster movement in the N. Y. Courier and Washington Republic is, that the politicians of the Whig party feel that the Southera game for President Fillmore is lost and that some other candidate must be found, it seems to us that the President must be found, it seems to us that the President must be found, it seems to us that the President Fillmore is lost and that some other candidate must be found, it seems to us that the President must have come to this conclusion. On any other supposition the rival of the Erie letter is inexplicable. Its republication, with comments in justification of it, was Mr. Fillmore's desperate dash at the support of the North; or, if not so, it was a blunder without parallel in the records of political blunders and folly, your last end may be the his, for if you believe that Jesus died, you must believe that he rose again from the dead, and that when Jesus shall come again, he will bring your father with him, and what a blessed meeting it will be.

Ladies Beware. YOU that have double glass, patent, balsam sealed, never fading Ambrotypes in your possession don't put them in your drawers, or on your table, or any where so that they may come in contact with your clothing, espe-cially during this hot weather. Balsam is a kind of cheap rude turpentine, and, like a discontented negro, there's telling when it will run away, in which case your pic ture is spotted and spoiled, your dresses are bedaubed and soiled, and if the balsam stays between the glasses, it is liable to become yellow or smoky, and sometimes quite black, so that your picture appears to be 'looking through smoked glass darkly," (this is no fiction, please examine and satisfy yourself.) Not one in four Ambrotype it up one year ago (with balsam) are perfect now; and we will wager that at least four opperators in this city can make better and more durable pictures on single glass than are made by the double glass process. We really than are made by the double glass process. We reany believe the only way the latter can be made perfectly se-cure is to seal them up in tin cans like sardines. N. B. The Spherestype is more uniformly permanent, more beautiful and pleasing style of picture, and is not preserved in turpentine or balsam. Webster has the exclusive right to make them in Louisville. Also the agency for the sale of rights to operate in the State. Instructions in the art, including the Ambrotype pro ess, can be obtained at WEBSTER'S GALLERY,

Dr. R. Hunter and myself have made these diseases our own peculiar study for several years, and we have found that the only means whereby these diseases can be reached is by direct local application, or the prescribing of medacines which are breathed into the lungs in the form of vapor, and are consequently brought in contact with the whole internal surface of the lungs. The success of our treatment has fully sustained the theory.

We hope that the speech of the 'little Pope hater," last night, will inspire the Fillmoreites with confidence enough to bet on Kentucky. Those who think Kentucky will not cast its electoral vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge can be accomodated with from one to ten thousand dollars by calling at this office.

A letter from a highly intelligent citizen of Hardin county, informs us that the Democracy feel confident that Hardin county will give a majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge is November. The Know Nothing majority last August was 812.

The most appropriate device which we saw in the Know Nothing procession last night was a tombstone, bearing the name of Fillmore.

NOTORIETY NOT ALWAYS ENVIABLE. - Jack Sheppard was one of the most notorious men of his at this time of year. Our Court House is so notorious that it figures conspicuously in a recent FROGS FOR THE NEW YORK MARKET. - We learn | English book. It owes its notoriety less to its from the Albany Argus that a man is constantly unfinished condition than to its decided inclinaengaged in that city in buying up frogs for the tion to decay. It is highly probable that a cer-New York market, where they command a high tain description of picture, called patent Ambroprice. His Still Catawba with ice, to prejudice the case, but this certainly seemed a sugar, and lemons, in the shape of cobblers, makes the most refreshing summer beverages great assumption of power. He submitted a resolution calling on the President for the facts in regard to the matter. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Callamer, from the committee on territories, submitted a minority report, which was read and ordered to be printed.

The Kansas bill was taken up.

Mr. Thomson was to some extent favorable to the measure reported yesterday, by the commit-tee on territories, but would prepare to have the government take strict measures with the terri-tories, and treat them as a father did his bad boys, who used to give them a flogging every morning, because he knew they would do something wrong before night to deserve it. [Laughter.] He thought it ridiculous that a young territory only two years old should set itself against the lawful authorities, its progenitor. He want-ed the laws strictly enforced, and enough military sent to do it.

He descanted on Fremont's qualifications for the presidency, and alluded to the state of political parties generally, and dissected the various platforms. He was not satisfied with either the polythican or Democratic platforms but the Republican or Democratic platforms, but the Philadelphia platform was able, sensible, and patriotic. But still above all other platferms he preferred the Whig platform of '52, and under the good old Whig banner he would live and die. He hoped all old Whigs would follow his example, and not stray away after false gods.

Bigler advocated the bill reported yesterday, by the committee on territories, as being the best remedy for the existing troubles in Kansas. Mr. Hale liked the bill very well and thought it was a much fairer proposition than could have been expected, considering the source from whence it emanated, but a difficulty was likely to be. This administration in carrying it out would not dose in a fair and impartial manner

He pointed out other objections to the bill.

Mr. Adams moved to amend the bill by striking out that part which gives the right of suffrage to all persons, who shall have filed their declaration of intention to become citizens of the United States in compliance with the naturalization Mr. Crittenden hoped the amendment would be adopted. He thought those foreigners who had declared their intention to become citizens had no more right to vote than those who made Adjourned. House.-Mr. Barclay moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the Kansas bill was rejected yesterday, and in assigning his reasons for doing so, said he was informed that warrants are in so, said he was informed that was the this district directing the arrest of Gov. Reeder This he regarded as farcical and was disposed o rebuke it by now voting for the bill in order protect the people of Kansas. Mr. Houston expressed regret that the gentle-man had charged his mind, rather in consequence of persuasions or by other means. Barclay replied that he had acted from a onscientious sense of duty, and would not be atimidated by the lash. Mr. Houston disavowed any intention to impeach the integrity of the gentleman; nor did he mean to censure him for the course taken.—He then moved to lay the resolution on the table. Mr. Houston moved that Mr. Barclay's motion to reconsider be laid on the table before any furher action be taken.

Mr. Seward rose to a question of privilege, wishing to make a report from the Kansas investigating committee. A debate ensued, involving he point that if the report should be received as complete, it would preclude Mr. Oliver, of Mo., from submitting a minority report.

The Speaker said a report in part could be made with the consent of the House.

Mr. Howard, in reply to an inquiry, said the tobacco, the growth of Hart county, from the farm of Hiram Rowe, was sold at the Ninth street warehouse Saturday at $15.00 per bundled.

> Other explanations followed during which Mr.

Florence remarked he understood from what had been said, the report had not been formally submitted to the committee, therefore it could not be received as the report of that committee. Much confusion prevailed throughout the pro-eedings, and a contest ensued, the House being divided as to whether the report should be received or not. Various points of order was Mr. Jones, of Tennessee hoped his party friends would withdraw their objections.

Adjourned. CHICAGO, July 1. Passengers by the Star of the West report the following concerning the Chicago company of emigrants to Kansas:

At Lexington, four pieces of cannon, loaded and primed, were on the shore, and three more on the steam ferry-boat, in a position to sink the steamer at the first fire. The captain's own family went ashore, and entreated the emigrants to give up their arms, which was done. At six o'clock next morning, the Company proceeded peaceably to Kansas City, where 100 Southerners came on board, armed with muskets and bayo-nets, commanded by Jones, Stringfellow, and Atchison, took possession of the lower deck, sur-rounded the gangway, and refused to let any one go below on pain of death. When they arrived at Leavenworth, 200 ruffians surrounded the boat. Atchinson told the emigrants that their decision was to keep them on the beat till her re-turn, and not to allow them to land at any point above Lexington. If they would return to Al-ton, they pledged their honor that their arms would be returned at the termination of hostilities. The emigrants took an inventory of arms still in their possession, and found only 15 rifles and pistols, and concluded resistance was useless. They returned on Saturday night, and were put ashore four miles below Alton. The captain, pre-tending to fear violence, stopped there. The Com-pany will proceed to the Territory immediately via Iowa City. A company from Worcester, Mass., arrived today, en route for Kansas.

His success in curing all those of the above difficulty, with the exception of a few, of the many hundred patients who have come under his care during the last thirty years of his practice enables him effectually to restore to health such cases as have been considered incurable. On the contrary, all those who from neglect or improper treatment, need only expect a train of symptoms to follow, the effect of which will end in their complete destruction.

Also, all those who are afflicted with any of the following diseases need not despair of being cured: Erysipelas, Scrofula or Kings Evil, White Swellings, Cancer, Salt Rheum or Tetter, Scald Head; in fact all diseases arising from impurities of the blood.

URBAN'S SAFES,
C. URBAN, BSq.: Dear Sir— We take pleasure in expressing our entiresatisfaction in the utility of your Salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at our kiquor and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street, at the late severe configgration. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruins, our surprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sinceregratification, we do not hesitate to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, as we know from experience that they truly are what they represent to be, "fire proof."

We remain very truly yours,

Cincinnati,Oct.,1853.

I would call the attentior of my friends and the publicin general to the above letter, hunded to me by Messrs. W., B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants.—
It is well known by the Cincinnati public that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, very severe tests. Among others, I would refer to he are at Mr. Scovill's druggist; that of Messrs. Davie & Co., iron merchants and founders; that of Mr. Shillito, scap and caudle factor; that of Messrs. Gireaud & carran, liquor and wine merchants. The Safesall came out victorious, although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late improvements, i dare say that my Safesa reinferior to none made this side the mountains. Asto the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thankful for past favors, a continuation of patronage is kindly colicited, m?

Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe paths in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Forthately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly.
